May It Please the Court:

As defendants are required to copy the Plaintiff Douglas K. Handshoe with all pleadings filed, in anticipation of Handshoe's telling yet another Court, "I did not get ... so-and-so's motion or opposition, or whatever," please let this serve as formal notice that I have sent copies of all motions and notices of removal filed to Mr. Handshoe this week.

The first pleadings having been sent to him and memorialized by the United States Postal Service by hand-delivery to his home at 214 Corinth Drive, Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, 39502 [See: Exhibit A - USPS Tracking Record regarding first pleading sent to Handshoe and delivered to his home on Wednesday past, 12 June 2013]. I shall notice the court if this conduct continues.
